May 31, 2005

Dear Henderson County Board of Commissioners,

I want to thank you very much for appointing me to the Henderson County Community Advisory Committee. It has been a pleasure and honor to serve with so many wonderful people who care so much about the people in our community.

It is with regret that I will have to resign effective immediately. Due to personal and job related concerns I cannot give the time that is and should be required and feel I am not being effective on this committee. My resignation will open up a space for someone who has more time to devote to this very important and necessary position.

Sincerely,

Jean Justus

Nursing Home/Adult Care Home
Community Advisory Committee

Dear Nuala,

Having been on the Community Advisory Committee for only a little over a year, I am very sorry to say that I have to resign on the advice of my doctor due to health problems.

It has been a privilege working with you, Nuala, and I have learned a lot from you, Nancy, and the other team members. I'll miss you all, and I wish the committee and the Ombudsman's office all the best as you work to help and protect those who can't help themselves.

Sincerely,
