FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Veterans Stand Down Event to be held at Hedrick-Rhodes Veterans Center HC-2024-21 Hendersonville, NC – July 12, 2024

Henderson County and the Office of Congressman Chuck Edwards are proud to host a Military Veterans Stand Down Celebration at the newly renovated Hedrick-Rhodes Veterans Center on Thursday, July 18, from 11:00 AM to 1:00 PM. This event provides support and resources to our veterans, offering a range of services and assistance in a welcoming environment.

The Veterans Stand Down is an opportunity for veterans to access essential services, including healthcare, housing assistance, employment opportunities, legal aid, and more. Local organizations and service providers will be on-site to offer information and support to all attendees.

Congressman Edwards will be in attendance along with Stephanie Young, Executive Director of the Charles George Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Asheville.

"We are honored to host the Veterans Stand Down and provide a platform for veterans to receive the assistance and services they deserve," said Assistant County Manager Christopher Todd. "This event is a testament to our commitment to supporting those who have served our country."

The event will take place at the Hedrick-Rhodes Veterans Center, located at 900 North Main Street, Hendersonville NC 28792.

For more information about the Veterans Stand Down, please contact Christopher Todd, Assistant County Manager at ctodd@hendersoncountync.gov.
