Discussion

Public Comment. Mrs. Kumor opened the floor for public comment. Several people expressed concerns regarding the Kanuga Rd. widening project, and several citizens expressed concerns on the proposed 64W Project, which were received by District Engineer Steve Cannon to be relayed to NCDOT for consideration. Commissioner Bill Lapsley thanked the citizens for relaying their concerns, and promised to relay the same concerns to the Henderson County Board of Commissioners. Mrs. Kumor invited Brian Burch to speak on the process transportation projects go through, and how to give further public input. Mr. Burch explained that the public comment portion of these projects was still ongoing, and that more opportunities to speak on the projects would be coming up.

Approval of Agenda. No discussion of agenda.

Draft Minutes August 16, 2017. Mr. Bill Lapsley made a motion to approve the September 20, 2017 minutes, Mr. Jim Crafton seconded the motion. All members voted in favor.

Routine Updates No updates were presented.

The meeting adjourned at 5:30pm.

Renee Kumor, Chair
